

1 DELEGATE GLEASON: Yes, but the full answer to 2 that question, if I may respond to the Chairman, is that 3 other sizes of legislatures have been established and 4 have been revised over the past four or five-year period.
5 We can't tell precisely how that was done, whether it was 6 done by constitution, being declared unconstitutional,
7 by legislature meeting, or responding to Federal Courts.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Do you have any further questions?
9 Delegate Scanlan?

10 DELEGATE SCANLAN: That still isn't my question.
11 My question is, How many States have no limitations at 12 all, in short, how many States do what you asked this 13 delegation to do in your motion?

14 DELEGATE GLEASON: Well, I think one of the 15 answers, of course, to that is the delegate knows that 16 there have been very few States that are in the process of 17 revising their Constitution in the past four-year period,
18 and so that I can't tell just how many States allow this 19 to be done. My case is resting on the proposition that 20 the Supreme Court decision, which you fostered, and brought 21 such great impact into this State, that now you ought not
